

First Economic and Investment Forum Singapore-Austria

Getzersdorf/Lower Austria, April 11, 2019 – On Wednesday, April 10, 2019, the “First Economic and Investment Forum Singapore-Austria”, organized by the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB) with the support of ERBER Group took place in Vienna.

The event was supported by the Singapore Ambassador H.E. Chan Heng Wing and the Economic Ambassador of Singapore Erich Erber, PhD h.c. (Chairman of the Supervisory Board and Founder of ERBER AG), AUSSENWIRTSCHAFT AUSTRIA and the Amadeus International School Vienna.

This event is for entrepreneurs and managers who already are successfully operating in Singapore, or considering it. The event aims to give guests and participants a better understanding of Singapore and Southeast Asia, and to present the initiatives of the EDB and Singapore’s government.

Representatives of renowned Austrian entrepreneurs who are already economically successful in Singapore gave insights into their current business operations in their keynote speeches. The subsequent panel with Jan Vanbrabant, PhD (Chairman of the Board of ERBER AG) saw a vivid exchange of experience.

The forum was opened by his Excellency Chan Heng Wing, Ambassador of Singapore in Austria, which underscored the significance of the forum.

EDB

The Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB), a government agency under the Ministry of Trade and Industry, is responsible for strategies that enhance Singapore’s position as a global centre for business, innovation, and talent. They undertake investment promotion and industry development, and work with international businesses, both foreign and local, by providing information, connection to partners and access to government incentives for their investments. Their mission is to create sustainable economic growth, with vibrant business and good job opportunities for Singapore.
